

How to use this form:

Before you complete this application please contact the Child Care Counsel of Westchester at 761-3456 to see if you are eligible for aid from New York State (DSS or Title XX subsidies). If you are eligible you must apply. Once you receive your award or denial letter from New York State you must submit it to the YMCA. If you were denied or told you would not qualify then you should submit this application and all the supporting documentation listed below.

1. Complete the Family YMCA at Tarrytown Financial Assistance Application on the reverse side of this brochure.
2. Submit copies of the following documents with the application:
 - Most recent 1040 Federal tax return
 - Two most recent pay stubs
 - Proof of public assistance
 - Free or Reduced Lunch letter from School District
 - Brief letter stating how YMCA activities will benefit your child.
3. Return all of the above (including this form) to:
Family YMCA at Tarrytown
Attn: Financial Assistance Program
62 Main Street
Tarrytown, NY 10591

What happens next:

1. Processing your application may take up to 30 days.
2. If you are missing any documentation your entire application will be returned to you with a cover letter stating what is needed.
3. The YMCA will send you a letter to verify that your application has been approved.
4. Bring the verification letter with you whenever you sign up for a YMCA membership or program.
